EXPLANATORY NOTES

Introduction

This publication is issued each month as a supplement to the annual Catalogue of Publications, Australia (1101.0) of the Australian Bureau of Statistics, which lists current ABS publications and gives brief descriptions (abstracts) of their contents. In addition, a Publications Advice (1105.0) is issued each Tuesday and Friday listing publications released on the day of issue and expected releases on the following five days (Canberra Office) or two days (State Offices).

2. Significant occurrences in ABS Publishing are highlighted in the section Publishing News which follows the list of publications issued during the month. Publishing News contains brief descriptions of the contents of new publications, describes changes in ABS publications and shows other information of interest to users of ABS publications.

Publication prices

3. Two prices are shown for each priced publication. The first price given is the 'over the counter' price while the second includes packaging and postage at ordinary rates within Australia. Overseas clients should add 10 per cent of the second price to meet the cost of overseas surface postage. Airmail rates are available on request.

4. Where no price is shown the publication is free.

Mailing list service

5. Clients who wish to receive free or priced publications on a regular basis may use the ABS computerised Publications Mailing List (PML) Service. Further details and order forms are available from any ABS office.

6. Clients (or subscribers) who already use the PML Service and who wish to amend their requirements should quote their account number when contacting ABS. The account number is shown at the top left hand corner of the address label used to despatch publications to clients.

7. Renewal notices are sent to all subscribers annually in respect of the subscription year commencing on 1 January. Payment for priced publications is required in advance and should accompany renewal notices returned to ABS.

Statistical information service

8. Each ABS office has an Information Service to assist clients. The service is designed to answer inquiries from clients on available official statistics, including statistics not published for economic reasons. Unpublished statistics cover a variety of topics such as population, dwellings, building, imports, exports, shipping, etc., in the form of computer printout, microfiche, magnetic tape or specially prepared tables.

9. In cases where a considerable volume of data has to be specially extracted or where a regular statistical service is required, a charge may be made.

OTHER PUBLISHING NEWS MAY - 1985

Imports by Commodity Divisions, Australia, March 1985 (5405.0), released on 6 May, announced that processing backlogs in the Australian Customs Service have affected import clearance statistics for the months of September 1984 to February 1985. As a result, the value of imports was understated by an estimated $300m for December 1984, and $600m for the eight months ended February 1985. The backlog was subsequently cleared during March 1985, and the value of imports for that month is, therefore, overstated by an estimated $600m.

Government Financial Estimates, Australia, 1984-85 (5501.0). This issue released on 21 May, presented statistics compiled on the basis of a range of new and revised classifications for use in the compilation and presentation of government finance statistics. Details of the new classifications and an explanation of the main differences between the new and old classifications were given in Classifications Manual for Government Finance Statistics, Australia (1217.0). As this is the first time that statistics have been released using these new classifications and definitions, the statistics are not, in general, directly comparable with those published in previous issues. Data shown in the tables for years earlier than 1982-83, previously published using the superseded classifications, have been converted to the new categories. This publication contains information for the years 1978-79 to 1984-85.

Savings Banks, Australia, March 1985 (5602.0), issued on 6 May, announced that this publication incorporated revisions made to previous statistics released in this series.

Job Search Experience of Unemployed Persons (Excluding Persons Who Were Stood Down), Australia, July 1984 (6222.0), published on 29 May, is the first issue of this publication released under this title. This publication was previously issued as Characteristics of Persons Looking for Work, Australia.

Industrial Disputes, Australia, February 1985 (6321.0), released on 14 May, contained data for February 1985 which included working days lost by Queensland electricity generation employees up until the time of their dismissal. Secondary effects of this dispute, and related sympathy stoppages that resulted in working days lost by employees at other establishments stood down or unable to work, were not included in the figures.

Agricultural Data Dissemination Service (ADDS) on Magnetic Tape and Microfiche, Australia, 1982-83 (7107.0). This Information Paper, previously released as Agricultural Information Dissemination Service (AIDS) on Magnetic Tape and Microfiche, Australia, announced that a comprehensive users manual is provided free of charge with each purchase of ADDS data. The manual includes an index to all data items contained on ADDS and all the areas throughout Australia for which data are available.

Production Bulletin No. 2 : Clothing and Footwear, Australia, January 1985 (8358.0), released on 17 May, contained data which had been compiled using a redesigned commodity classification. The revisions are effective from July 1984. The object of the classification redesign was to develop a production classification which would reflect current production characteristics more closely and which would facilitate use of production statistics in conjunction with import and export statistics.

For the majority of items it has been possible to reformat details for periods before July 1984 and present them in terms of the redesigned classification. Factors affecting the comparability of the reformatted series have been identified in footnotes to the respective tables concerned.
